FLUIDWRITE TEST CASE

- Click the "Create A Document".

- Put title of your writing in the writing section.

- Fill textbox with your writing.

- Then press the "Save" button to save the writing.

- You will see the warning .If there is already a writing with the same title,information of this writing will be overwrite any previously existing file with the same title.Also you can put only 25 characters for title.This is rule

- After this warning click "Tamam" button.Then document will be saved in alphabetical order.

- When you want to change or to read your article,you can choose the title which you want to modify the article.Then press the "Load" button on the same page.

- Later article will be uploaded in textarea.You can change both title and content of the article,then you can save it.

- When you want to see your documents which are uploaded before clicking "My Documents" page.All of the articles will seem with their title.

- In this page you have three options.You can delete,load and rename the article which you want

- To delete the article,click "Delete" button.It will dissappear in "My Documents" page.

- When you click the "Rename" button.You can change only the title of article then you can save it again.

- Also "Load" button, when you click it.Article will be loaded.Then you can read,you can change content of article and can change the title of article and you can save it again.

- If you know the title of your article, you can search your article by title .

- If you want to get an information you can choose "About " section.

- Additionaly,you can start with clicking "Start Writting" button.You can the all of the same things with the same way.